The Yacht Fairy Capt. Dyer calld to sail tomorrow for New York by which I will send to you a book packed in a box, I hope you will receive it safe. would have sent it before but this is the first opportunity that has offered. I suppose you are by this time keeping house in Brooklyn. William wrote me you had engaged a house there very pleasantly situated. I think Brooklyn a pleasanter place to live in than N.Y. & much more healthy.

We have Mr Daniel Sewall the youngest son of the Reverable Jotham Sewall for our Minister. we have given him a call to settle with us, he has accepted, Thursday 29th of Oct. is appointed for his installment; he has moved his family here has a wife & 4 Children.

I have received the antislavery Reporter for which I thank you, I hope the cause will prosper by the blessing of Heaven we enjoy good health, Mother's lameness continues yet I have lost my strength, a little exercise exhausts me & I have to lay down to rest now. Mother has written to Lucy & told her the news given her my best love, hope we shall have the pleasure of seeing you both in Castine next year if not before. It would be gratifying if you be here at the installation of Mr Sewall.

I have got to be an old man if I live until next Friday Oct. 3. I shall be 79 years old. I hope You will remember us at the Throne of Grace. Please to let us know if you receive the Red.

With respect & affection I am
Yours Obedt Servt
